PORSCHE 356 B T6 1961

This is a magnificent example of a beautiful classic Porsche. The 356B was produced from 1960, replacing and completely redesigning the 356A. The key visual differences between the B series and the previous model include the front bumper and headlights positioned much higher, with enlarged rim guards, creating a classic look and beautiful finish.

This stunning 1961 Porsche 356B T6 is completely restored, painted in a stylish silver and finished in a deep blue interior. The 356B has all matching numbers and is in outstanding condition, with zero mileage after the restoration. The original interior has been updated from black to a rich dark blue to give it a luxurious, classic finish. This is a rare moment to discover a brilliant example of a classic.
